WARNS OF ALESSANDRI IMPOSTER -- L'Entente, 9 Apr 50

On 27 March, the Voice of Nam Bo (Viet Minh Radio) reported that General Alessandri had been listed as missing since the early part of that month. General Alessandri, who had been assigned the special mission of recapturing Pho Lu and all other posts in the Lao Cay area, left Lao Cay alone at the end of February, and was last reported near the Chinese border at the beginning of March.

The broadcast concluded with a report from Hanoi, which was unconfirmed but had been circulated in several local newspapers, that a certain General Alessandri reportedly had reviewed a unit of self-styled liberators of the Red River Delta, and had even awarded many decorations.

According to the Voice of Nam Bo, the Commander in Chief of the FAEO has warned the public, particularly the population of Hanoi, against believing reports of this nature. He also has announced that he is not responsible for the conduct and words of some impersonator who pretends to be General Alessandri.

During his broadcast, Duong Bach Mai extended greetings to his French Democratic friends, and urged all Vietnamese intellectuals, Catholics, and workers to support the task of driving French colonialists from Indochina forever.

THANH NIEN SUSPENDED FOR ATTACKS ON PREMIER -- L'Entente, 9 Apr 50

Saigon -- The Vietnamese National Surete has suspended the anti-Communist newspaper, Thanh Nien, reportedly for having published articles attacking the incompetency of the present government. Thanh Nien is known as the organ of the Tanh Nien Bao Quoc Doan, a patriotic youth group. Its director, Tran Van Xuan, is head of the TNBQD, and successor to Do Van Nang, who was recently assassinated by the Viet Minh.

Although the newspaper was seized and suspended by the order of Prime Minister Long, Tran Van Xuan reportedly had copies of his paper distributed among the members of the TNBQD.
